In Loving Memory of

Sarah was the girl who could light up a room with her beautiful smile and bring laughter to even the saddest situation. As we walk across the stage on June 4, 2004 a little piece of Sarah will be walking with all of us.

Some people come into our lives, leave footprints on our hearts ...

Sarah Elizabeth Pellon

Sarah,
Your wonderful personality and caring nature will never be forgotten.

Love,
Class of 2004

In Memory of

Sarah E. Pellon

March 22, 1986
August 26, 2002

Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the autumn's gentle rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die.
I live with the risen Lord.

... and we are never the same.

Norton High's Top Picks for the Hall of Fame

Ms. Cloutier blessed us at Norton High with her presence for the past thirty-five years. She first realized that she wanted to teach when she was a student at Bishop Feehan High School. After her retirement, Ms. Cloutier plans to work part time doing something different. She looks forward to having more time to shop, dine out and golf. Traveling again to Disney World with her family is also high on the agenda. Her favorite place to be, however, is a quiet spot with a good book, preferably a mystery. Among her fond memories of Norton High School are the good times she shared with other teachers when planning events. She reflects fondly on her time spent here, but she believes that now is the time to begin the next chapter in her life. Thank you, Ms. Cloutier for your kindness and dedication to your students.

"It's been a great ride." ~ Ms. Cloutier

"I am not the environment!" ~ Mr. Holster

Mr. Holster has been sharing his passion for teaching with us at Norton High School for the last thirty-nine years and is now deciding it's time to pursue other interests. Over the years, he has dedicated his life to the enhancement of society by working as a firefighter, volunteering as an E.M.T., coaching numerous sports teams, being an athletic trainer, and enthusiastically teaching. He will be remembered for his sense of humor, his jolly disposition in the classroom and his ties. After retirement, he plans to continue writing about the environment, learning about photography, and possibly opening his own bookstore with his daughter. As a self-proclaimed "James Bond freak" he owns all twenty-two movies, all three soundtracks, and even the James Bond Encyclopedia. Mr. Holster's lifetime memories range from meeting President John F. Kennedy and becoming a grandfather to blowing up a lab experiment and tasting exotic cuisine such as alligator. His favorite place to be is with his family, especially by the ocean. His favorite thing about teaching is seeing his former students everywhere he goes. Thank you, Mr. Holster for devoting your life to your students; you will be truly missed.

THE NEED TO SUCCEED

Art Honor Society

Art Honor Society

The Norton High School's Art Honor Society recognizes students who possess outstanding ability in art. In addition to their creativity and academic excellence, the Art Honor Society members also partake in community service events. Under the guidance of Miss Hall and the officers, President — Kaitlyn Cullinane, Vice President — Rachele Harkins, Secretary — Emily Francis, Treasurer — Christina Bisanti, and the Communication Secretary — Erin O'Brien, the Art Honor Society has successfully incorporated art throughout the community as well as Norton High School.

Spanish Honor Society

With the guidance of advisor, Mrs. Godfrey, the Alonso Quijana chapter of the Spanish Honor Society promotes study of the language and culture throughout the school and community. With the leadership of president, Rachele Harkins, vice-president, Sarah Lizio, secretary, Melissa Costa and treasurer, Seth Farrell, members of the society tutor students, sponsor a child in Latin America, and donate their time and knowledge to teach children Spanish at the local Literacy Center. In addition, the society co-organized the Junior/Senior Semi-formal with the French Honor Society, and sponsored the annual Día de los Muertos celebration.

The Grace B. Kiernan Chapter of the Quill and Scroll Honor Society recognizes outstanding High School journalists. These journalists are involved in one of the three school publications: The Lance, the school newspaper; Local Colour, the literary arts magazine; or Sojourn, the yearbook. Some of Quill and Scroll's goals are to promote literary publications and to preserve records of our history. As one of the new inductees said, "permanent records of one's past, and the events that occur during one's lifetime shape the future." With the new advisor, Miss O'Driscoll, there will be fresh new ideas that will help Quill and Scroll realize its goals.

In anticipation of the upcoming drama production, Greg, Colleen, Justine, and Lisa work to design programs for the show under the supervision of Miss O'Driscoll.

Tri-M Honor Society

Under the direction of Ms. Remick, president Aleah Webster, vice president Rita Tolland, secretary Katie Regan, and treasurer Stacey Gomes, the Tri-M Music Honor Society consists of accomplished music students striving to reach their full potentials living up to their titles as Modern Music Masters. New inductees must perform a solo or ensemble piece for the current members prior to induction. The society also sponsors the annual talent show each spring. The society is always striving to recognize the musical achievements of students.

Front: Melissa Costa, Will Lippincott, Stacey Gomes, Aleah Webster, Rita Tolland, Katie Regan, Jess Cohen. Middle: Mark Johnson, Jason Muller, James Falzone, Seth Farrell, Chase Wheeler, Peter Innes, Josh Weisz-Smith. Back: Gwen Kohl, Kate Barney, Kim Bury, Val Dotolo, Katie Maginnis, Pierre-André Houpert.

The Student Council members meet once a week to discuss and to plan new events or to propose new ideas to benefit the school community. Under the guidance of advisor Vice Principal Mr. Dewar, the group planned the Homecoming Dance as well as the pep rally in the football season.

The Norton High Class Officers work hard each year in an effort to raise money and hold activities for their respective classes. The Freshman Class Officers meet two times a month to organize fundraisers. The sophomores planned the annual Snowball Dance to increase the class funds. The Junior/Senior prom is organized by the Junior Class Officers. Finally, with graduation approaching, the seniors planned several activities to unite the class and celebrate four years of hard work. Being a Class Officer requires many hours of hard work and dedication.

The Snowball

Will and Amy have a blast on the dance floor.

Sooner or later we all discover that the important moments in life are not the advertised ones, not the great goals achieved. The real milestones are less prepossessing. They come to the door of memory unannounced, with only our friends by our side and the whole night ahead of us. Our lives are measured by these moments that we will never forget and probably never relive. The freshman-sophomore snowball dance of 2003 was a night that will be etched in our minds forever. The sophomores sponsored this semi-formal dance of dancing and memory-making. It is important during experiences such as the snowball to forget the past and not to look towards the future, but to embrace the present because that is a gift that will never repeat.

Kelly, Allison, and Debbie dance the night away.

Colleen and Russ sit and wait for a dance.

Semi-Formal Dance

On November 21st the Semi-Formal was held at the Holiday Inn in Mansfield. The juniors and seniors gathered with anticipation of the unforgettable night ahead. With a theme of "Painting the Town Red" and a goal of providing a night full of memories the evening did not disappoint.

On May 30, 2003 the juniors and seniors of Norton High gathered at Christina's Function Hall in Foxboro for the annual Prom. It was a night of tuxes, gowns, laughter and tears while the departing seniors shared last dances and old memories. Prom King, Jason Rodman (J.R.) and Queen Jen Dunn, took the spotlight during their Royal Dance.

Above: Alicia, Kate, and Sharon are ready to step into the spotlight.

Prom 2003

The theme "All My Life" had seniors realizing when the night concluded there were no more high school dances. In just a few days they would be walking across a stage and opening a new door to their future. All their lives were changing, it was a time to smile and say good-bye.

Above: Prom King J.R. and Queen Jen are Norton High's royalty for the night.

Chorus

This year chorus became an elective, instead of taking over the singers' studies. Led by conductor Miss Leslie Comperchio, the chorus works diligently to produce masterful performances for their Holiday and Spring concerts. The curriculum includes concerts, papers, and other such homework assignments that challenge the students to learn new and interesting facts. The songs chosen are not easy and require hard work, practice, and dedication.

First Row: Meredith Keating, Sharon Simon, Aleah Webster, Amy Lang, Andrea O'Sullivan, Sally Rodriguez.
Second Row: Rachael Huckins, Victoria Regan, William Lippencott, Katy Hart, Lauren Gilbert.
Third Row: Rita Tolland, Ashley Franco, Ariana Rostron, Grace Kennedy, Dianna Desmond, Kim Bury.

Above: Aleah Webster, Cassandra Gleed, Laura Hathaway, and Ariana Rostron practice in pursuit of perfection.

Right: Miss Comperchio conducts a stellar concert.

Concert Band

Music is an artistic form of auditory communication incorporating instrumental or vocal tones in a structured and continuous manner. It is one of the only fields of art that can open the mind and touch the heart with the power of its harmonious sounds. With its unique form of expression, almost any emotion felt within the human soul can be articulated by it. The Norton High School Concert Band represents our school's tie to this beautifully emotional art form and is impressively led by their director Ms. Paula J. Remick.

Second Row: Wes Hicks, Pierre Andre-Hupert, Katie Maginnis, Kim Bury, Katie Regan, Stacey Gomes, Melissa Costa, Will Lippincot, James Falzone, Mark Johnson.
Third Row: Dan Demers, Pete Innes, Paul Ippoliti, Jason Muller, Jacqueline Pigeon, Jen Anderson, Rachael Staab, Kristen Brown, Danielle Pino, Meaghan Pigeon, Bobby Perry, Josh Weiz-Smith, Mark Lutz.
Fourth Row: Gwen Kohl, Lisa Tucker, Jess Cohen, Will Waite, Adam Fisher, Frank Cacaccio, Colleen O'Brien, Chris Leene, Sam Weisman, Rita Tolland, Val Dotolo, Adam Reeves, Kate Barney.

How much longer until our faces turn red?

The talent of the band is astounding as they get into the music.

Pep Club

The Norton High School Pep Club members are students who are dedicated to showing their school spirit and trying to encourage others to join them. Throughout the year, the members help to plan the pep rallies and cheer for the football and basketball teams. Most of the signs supporting the athletic teams that are posted throughout the school, are made by the members of the Pep Club. The Pep Club members are models for school spirit.

Music in motion, one of the greatest ideas since the victrola, is by its very nature an excellent form of entertainment. Under the direction of Ms. Paula Remick, drum major Stacey Gomes and assistant drum major Curtis McKeown, the band put together a stellar performance of the "Paul Simon Opener", and "You Can Call Me Al." During half-time at home football games they played an extensive variety of music in the stands.

The Norton High Pep Band members display their talents on Route 123 while entertaining the crowd during the annual Halloween Parade.

Local Colour

Local Colour is Norton High's Literary Arts Magazine. Each year the Local Colour staff compiles paintings, drawings, photography, poetry and short stories that have been created and submitted by students. This magazine showcases the extraordinary talents that so many Norton High students possess. With the guidance of advisor Miss O'Driscoll, this year's Local Colour is sure to be a success.

Majorettes

The Norton High School Majorettes team is a talented group of baton twirlers who dedicate countless hours out of school to perfecting their competition routines. Taking first place at home was last year's greatest team accomplishment. This year's group is hoping for success as well, and with their talent and dedication they will prove to be an excellent team throughout their competitions.

Practicing her flawless neck roll for her upcoming competition, Brittany Panek is sure to lead her team to first place.

During one of their many late night practices, Kelly and Lisa help each other perfect their twirling.

The Page

Gwen Kohl and Melissa Costa

The Page is a student written section of the Sun Chronicle. Schools from all around the area have representatives on The Page. High school writers cover everything from STDs to local bands. The Page provides an opportunity for students to share their opinions and to inform other students. This year's writers representing Norton High School are Melissa Costa and Gwen Kohl.

Melissa polishes her article in time for the presses to roll.

The Lance

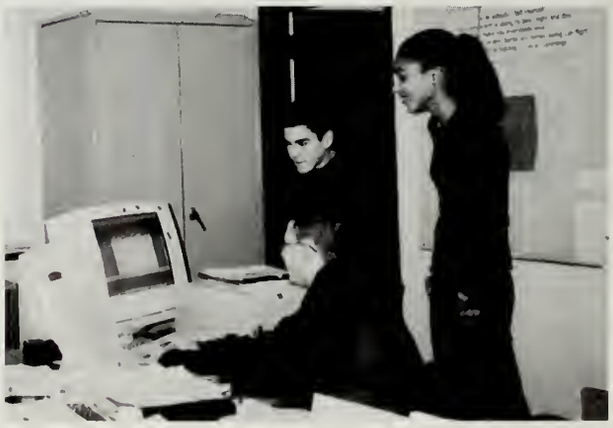
The Lance is Norton High School's monthly newspaper. A talented group of young writers have teamed up to bring the school interesting and often humorous articles with subjects ranging from movie reviews to advice for students preparing for college. The group works diligently to ensure that The Lance is not only informational, but also enjoyable to read. Their efforts have paid off as The Lance always receives positive feedback from the student body.



Frank, Steven, and Megan peruse the paper previous to print.

Chess & Games

Seated: Brendan Hughes, Ty Chorney. Standing: Danielle Enos, Kurt Larsen and Melissa Costa.

In six simple steps Kurt and Danielle demonstrate how to achieve checkmate.

The Chess & Games Club meets bi-weekly in Mrs. Penza's room where they engage in friendly competition and enjoy refreshments. A winning combination for all!

Debate

Seated: Alicia Delory, Stephanie White, Valerie MacPhee. Standing: Mike Hindle, Hannah Kelly, Kurt Larsen, James Falzone and Mark Lutz.

The Debate Club led by Mrs. Mackinder involves students in learning the fundamentals of debating. The club, ranging from freshman to seniors provides a unique atmosphere for students to view topics from different perspectives. Students argue important issues that leave them with a better understanding of the world today.

Drama

This year under the direction of Mr. Miller, the Drama Club performed the play Mr. A's Amazing Maze Plays. It related the story of a girl named Suzy and her dog Neville who sought all the sounds they believed were stolen by the new mysterious neighbor, Mr. Acousticus. Audience interaction propelled the story line to a new direction with every performance.

Peer Leaders

Front Row: Kristen Brown, Sally Rodriguez, Jackie LaVerghetta, Jenna Flynn, Christina Geary and Stacey Allen.

Peer Leaders

The Norton High School Peer Leaders is an extracurricular activity that is open to any student who wants to work at spreading good morals and knowledge throughout the community. Led by Ms. Cardoza, the Peer Leaders participate in activities such as helping needy families during the holiday season and assisting teachers at the L.G. Nourse Elementary School in reading to their students and doing arts and crafts. This year, they collaborated with the Diversity Alliance and sang Christmas carols at the Epoch Senior Center. The Norton High School Peer leaders are all well-rounded students and take pride in providing good examples for the other high school students as well as members of the Norton community.

Peer Mediation

Middle Row: Helen Qualls, Mike Bradley, Brendan Hoyle, Mike Maloney, Tony Scudere, Meredith Rodman, Greg Frazier.

Peer Mediation

The worth of Peer Mediation can only be measured in the students who benefit from it. The club is comprised of students who have been trained to help resolve problems between conflicting students in a manner that is friendly but serious. All problems are dealt with as soon as possible and are kept confidential. This club primarily helps the student body, and its members are passionate about what they do. The members are fully aware that they are helping to better the school as a whole. This is what keeps them motivated and interested in the club. This is what Peer Mediation is all about.

Habitat for Humanity and Amnesty International

Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity, led by advisor Mr. Duff, is an organization dedicated to helping the people in our community. They keep in close contact with the senior citizens, organizing events to unite the high school students with the elderly. They were also involved with cleaning up the school grounds and providing a better atmosphere for the students.

Just put your John Hancock on the dotted line. Mehdi does his part to help those less fortunate around the world while Aleah eagerly awaits her turn to sign.

Middle Row: Pat Hughes, Jeff Stelmack and Greg Sylvestre.
Back Row: Val MacPhee, Emily Francis, Laura Summerfield and Kate Barney.

Amnesty International

Amnesty International strives to provide help to those in need in third world countries who do not have the freedoms and rights that every human deserves. Under the direction of Mr. Taylor, President Aleah Webster, Vice President Katie Fillion, Secretary Katie Maginnis and Treasurer Adam Reeves sign petitions to work towards the bettering of mankind.

I've got your back! Members of Amnesty help each other in helping others around the world.

Middle Row: Steven Smith, Victoria Regan, Paige Parker, Katie Hart and Jen Beltz.

Diversity Alliance

Diversity Alliance is a club where students celebrate their differences. They encourage the education and appreciation of the qualities each individual, regardless of race, gender, or religion, brings to the world.

Math Team

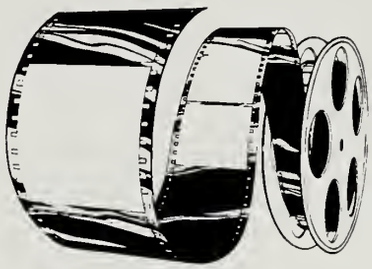
Members of the Norton High School Math Team, devote their free time to solving math problems that seem impossible to most. These students travel to different schools to test their mathematical abilities with other students.

Right: Bottom: Kim Bury, Tyler Chorney, Dan Demers. Middle: Colleen Rose, Monica Dean. Top: Kurt Larson, Katie Maginnis, James Falzone.

Above: In careful concentration, Kurt Larsen double checks his work during a math team competition to ensure that he earns a perfect score for his team.

Media Arts Club

The Media Arts Club provides students with an opportunity to exercise their freedom of expression. Members of this group devote time to the art of film making. Many members of this club hope to see future work on the big screen.



Bottom: James Falzone, Mark Lutz, Mark Johnson. Middle: Hannah Kelly, Monica Dean. Top: Val McPhee.

Environmental Club

Front: Ashley Franco, Grace Kennedy. Back: Colleen Rose, Gwen Kohl, Shauna Medeiros, Valerie Tilden.

The Environmental Club's main goal is to nurture the earth and educate people about preserving its natural gifts. Led by Ms. Silvi, this organization meets every Thursday to discuss new topics of environmental concern such as soil, wildlife, and forestry.

In an effort to make Norton a "tree city", the Environmental Club brainstorms new ideas about how to address this issue at the upcoming town meeting.

SOJOURN 2004

Justine works hard at the computer writing copy for this year's yearbook.

The yearbook staff this year is led by Mrs. Elaine Ardagna and Ms. Kerryn Frazier. The staff and advisors put together a fantastic yearbook themed, "And The Award Goes To ...", for the Class of 2004. They meet almost everyday after school to put together the pages and take pictures at all events that happened in the school.

Amanda and Natalie focus on making their page perfect.

Alicia and Rachael work on captions for all the pictures!

You know you're a senior when...its finally graduation day!

These are the Years
~ Elizabeth Ford

You can't erase the past, nor the memories made along the way
For everything you remember is more than words can say.

All these years we thought would just take too long
And after all we've been through, these years are already gone.

The years that are the best and worst times of our life
Are the years that make or break us through the pain and through the strife.

Now we, as people with our childhood in the past,
Wish forever more that we made these few years last.

In times of hardships and of pain, whatever it may be,
It was these few years that taught the lessons that made us truly see

That life isn't always what it seems through the laughter and the tears
And whatever you're faced with from here on out is the sum of all your fears.

You may have learned the acquaintances that were made on your part
Will forever remain etched on your soul, and leave footprints on your heart.

From grade school to freshman year, young adults in disguise
To sophomore year where you become wise

To junior year, finally an upperclassman at best
To senior year, ruling the school, preparing for life ... the biggest test.

And when you leave here, wherever you intend to go,
Remember it was these years of your life that truly made you grow.

Think back to what you've learned, and even though you cover the tears as you leave,
Recognize at this one moment that you wear your heart upon your sleeve.

Be happy that you made it, as you leave your past behind
And everything you look for may be a challenge to find.

In the beginning of this journey, I was told that knowledge is the greatest tool,
And now I know everything I learned was taught to me in high school.

The Class of 2004 does hereby bequeath...

2004

Farewell from the Faculty and Staff

Much happiness and good health in the years ahead. Treasure family and friends - enjoy!
~ Susan C. Carney

Best of Luck to the Class of 2004. ~ Mr. Dery

Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once in awhile, you might just miss it!! Good Luck!! ~ Mr. Lib

In the words of Alice Walker: "No person is your friend who demands your silence, or denies your right to grow." Therefore live and choose well.
~ Mr. Miller

Best of Luck ~ Mr. and Mrs. Peter Holster

Suivez vos rêves! ~ Mrs. Penza

Be honest.
Apologize.
Stand up for yourself.
Don't hold any grudges.
Tell your family that you love them...
And always be there for your friends. ~ Miss Hall

"Learn from yesterday, live for today, hope for tomorrow. The important thing is not to stop questioning." - Albert Einstein. ~ Lynn Ito

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are small matters compared to what lies within us." -Ralph Waldo Emerson. You are all capable of doing great things! No matter where life takes you, stay true to yourself and enjoy the ride! ~ Ms. Malone

Wherever you go, go with all your heart. Love and Best Wishes.
~ Mrs. Young and Mrs. Ardagna

Best Wishes to the Class of 2004. ~ Ms. Frazier

Johnny,
Congratulations in all you have accomplished.
We are so proud of you! You will do great things in your future.
All our love,
Mom & Dad

Congratulations Greg!!

We are so proud of you!
Love Mom, Dad, Kevin & Eric

Andrew,

As a child, I saw you as the artist (who drew on the walls), the environmentalist (who climbed the trees in our yard), the archaeologist (discovering his toy dinosaurs), and the architect (of new worlds with his blocks). It has been a long journey since the days of dinosaurs and blocks. Today, I see you as a successful high-school graduate, an athlete, a hard-worker, and a loving son. Remember the simple joys of your youth and carry them with you into the future.

We are proud of you, and will love you always.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Victoria, Kelsey, Adam, Nana & Gramps, Grandma Sharon, Grandpa Peter, Grandma Mary & Grandpa Don, Pepere, Pappy & Grandma Jenny, Grandma Bev, Uncle Scott, Aunt Jennifer, Aunt Lori & Uncle Anthony, Aunt Debbie, and Aunt Erica.

"Having my own company, being successful and happy." Jennifer Grasso

When things in your life seem almost too much to handle, when 24 hours in a day are not enough, remember the mayonnaise jar.

A professor stood before his philosophy class and had some items in front of him. When the class began, wordlessly, he picked up a very large and empty mayonnaise jar and proceeded to fill it with golf balls. He then asked the students if the jar was full. They agreed that it was.

So the professor then picked up a box of pebbles and poured them into the jar. He shook the jar lightly. The pebbles rolled into the open areas between the golf balls. He then asked the students again if the jar was full. They agreed it was.

The professor next picked up a box of sand and poured it into the jar. Of course, the sand filled up everything else. He asked once more if the jar was full. The students responded with laughter and a unanimous "yes."

"Now," said the professor, as the laughter subsided, "I want you to recognize that this jar represents your life. The golf balls are the important things--your family, your children, your health, your friends, and your favorite passions--things that if everything else was lost and only they remained, your life would still be full. "The pebbles are the other things that matter like your job, your house, your car. The sand is everything else--the small stuff.

If you put the sand into the jar first," he continued, "there is no room for the pebbles or the golf balls. The same goes for life. If you spend all your time and energy on the small stuff, you will never have room for the things that are important to you. Pay attention to the things that are critical to your happiness. Play with your children. Take time to get medical checkups. Take your partner out to dinner. Play another 18. There will always be time to clean the house, and fix the disposal. "Take care of the golf balls first, the things that really matter. Set your priorities. The rest is just sand." (Author Unknown)

Those who profess to favor freedom and yet depreciate agitation, are people who want crops without ploughing the ground; they want rain without thunder and lightening; they want the ocean without the roar of its many waters. The struggle may be a moral one, or it may be a physical one, or it may be both. But it must be a struggle. Power concedes nothing without a demand; it never has and it never will.

Angela,

Congratulations! I am so proud of who you are. I have watched you grow from a shy little girl to a beautiful, mature young woman who follows her own path. As you go through your own life please remember,

One person can make a difference,

Always stand for what you believe in,

No one can make you feel inferior without your consent. Always love yourself, for who you are no matter what.

Beauty fades, dumb is forever. Never lose your desire to always keep learning. There are lessons in all we do. You just need to recognize them.

Always make your decisions based on love, not fear, and if it harms none, do what you will.

Dear Graduates:

A yearbook is more than printed pages, clever sayings, and photographs. It is, in a very real sense, a record of memories – your memories – the memories you hold both individually and in common as students of Norton High School.

It is my sincere hope, as well as the hope of the entire Norton Public School family, that those memories are pleasant ones, ones which you will cherish throughout your life.

You have received at Norton High School an education that will serve you well throughout your lives, and the memories within these pages will serve you in those quiet moments when you turn your thoughts back to your days spent in Norton High School.

I wish you health, happiness, and success throughout your lives.

Yours truly,
